Numb. 4349

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday July 14. to Thursday July 17. 1707.

Dublin, July 7.

THis Day his Excellency Thomas Earl of Pembroke went with the usual Solemnity to meet the Lords and Commons of this Kingdom, assembled in Parliament; and being seated in the Throne, made the following Speech to both Houses:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

THE Queen, through the whole Course of Her glorious Reign, has not only shewn Her great Care for the Preservation of the Liberties of Europe, but has been always intent on whatsoever may contribute to the Good of all Her Subjects; and, to the utmost of Her Power, has endeavour'd to unite them in Love and Affection: And now, in particular, to manifest Her tender Concern for you, of this Her Kingdom of Ireland, She has again call'd you together, to consider of such Laws as may be thought necessary for the further Prosperity of this Her Realm; and in all things to provide for the Security of it against Foreign and Domestick Enemies: And, in order to the attaining of these Blessings, I am commanded by Her Majesty to recommend to You Unanimity amongst Your selves; and to inform You, That Her Majesty considering the Number of Papists in this Realm, would be glad of any Expedient for the strengthening the Interest of Her Protestant Subjects in this Kingdom.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

The publick Service requiring that several Regiments upon the Establishment should be sent abroad, I am commanded by Her Majesty to inform you, That She intends to supply the like Number of Forces for the Security of this Kingdom: And I don't doubt but you will make Provision of the necessary Supplies for Payment of the Army, as well for the defraying the Charges of the Government. And that You may have a perfect View of what is owing, I have ordered the proper Officers to prepare and lay before you an exact State of the Revennues.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

In order to the attaining and establishing the Safety and Welfare of this Kingdom, I should think my self extreamly happy, if, during my Administration, all Matters should be conducted with that Temper and Prudence, as may justly intitle You to the Continuance of Her Majesty's Affections: For my own Part (though a great Honour to serve in this Post) I can propose no Satisfaction in it, without your Happiness and Prosperity, the which I shall sincerely endeavour to promote, and hope (but chiefly by Your Assistance) to secure the Good of this Kingdom, and shew, in our several Stations, that we are united in our Affections to each other, as well as in Duty to the best of QUEENS.

Windsor, July 15. The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Commissary, Aldermen, and Burgesses, of the Corporation and Borough of Richmond, in the County of York, and of the Gentlemen and other Inhabitants of the said Borough: Presented to Her Majesty by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Marquis of Hartington.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

YOur Majesty, by Your great Wisdom, and the indefatigable Care and Application of Your Ministers, having in the Space of a few Months brought to Perfection an Union of Your Two late Kingdoms, England and Scotland; a Work so much desired, and so often, but without effect, attempted throughout the preceding Century; shews, that God Almighty reserved for Your glorious Reign that finishing Streak of this Island's Happiness, as the Reward of Your Majesty's exemplary Piety and Virtue. So signal an Evidence of Your Majesty's Zeal and Watchfulness for Your People's Welfare, calls upon us, and all Your Subjects, to pay Your Majesty our dutiful Acknowledgments for so great a Blessing; and to render unto God (who hath granted You Your Heart's Desire) the Sacrifice of Praise and Thanksgiving; and constantly to implore His Divine Majesty to grant unto Your People Your Majesty's long Life, and a prosperous and peaceable Reign over us and all other Your Subjects. In Testimony whereof we have not only hereunto set our Hands, but have fixed the Common Seal of this said Borough this 7th Day of July, in the Year of our Lord God 1707.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses, of Her Majesty's ancient Borough of Leicester, in the County of Leicester: Presented to Her Majesty by the Rt. Hon. Mr. Vice-Chamberlain, in the Absence of their Representatives in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave, with unfeigned Joy and Thankfulness, to congratulate Your Majesty for the happy Accomplishment of the long desired Union of Your Kingdoms of England and Scotland; a Transaction wherein the Favour of the Divine Providence is so remarkable, Your Majesty's Wisdom and Care of Your People so conspicuous, and the Advantages likely to ensue from it so very great, that we want Words to express our grateful Sense of them: But we assure Your Majesty, That we will not be wanting in our Prayers, that it may have all the good Effects which Your Majesty desires; and that Your Majesty may long live to see them in the Encrease of the Wealth, Strength and Safety, of Your united Kingdom. Given under our Common Seal this first Day of July, in the Sixth Year of Your Majesty's most auspicious Reign.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Jurats, and Common-Council-men, of the Town and Borough of Deale, in the County of Kent: Presented to Her Majesty by John Brewer Esq; their Recorder.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

WE Your Majesty's most loyal and obediant Subjects in all Humility congratulate Your Majesty in the Success of Your Glorious Undertaking, by which the incorporating Union of England and Scotland is happily accomplished. This great Work was always encompassed with such Difficulties which in former Reigns were insuperable: But Your Majesty's approved Wisdom and Councils are such, that all Your Endeavours, ever employed for the Good of Your People, during the whole Course of Your Reign, have been successful. It must be confessed a great Work to unite Kingdoms, and even yet a greater to unite the Hearts and Affections of a People who had different Interests, or by Prejudice or other Considerations have been accustomed to think so: But this Union more effectually securing the Succession of the Crown of Great Britain in the Protestant Line, and consolidating two Bodies under one Head, our Strength is encreased, and consequently our Trade, and Security the better established. We therefore justly hope, That all Your Majesty's Subjects of Great Britain will be unalterably united in their Loyalty, (as their Duty) to Your Majesty, and in mutual Affections (as their Interest) to one another: And that these desirable Effects may attend this Union, are the Prayers, and shall be the sincere Endeavours, of Your Majesty's dutiful Subjects. Given under our Common Seal this 7th Day of July, 1707.

The humble Address of the Bailiffs, Recorder, and Capital Burgesses, of the Cornoration of Aldeburgh, in the County of Suffolk, for and in behalf of themselves, and the rest of the Burgesses of the said Corporation: Presented to Her Majesty by Sir Henry Johnson and William Johnson Esq; their Representatives in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

May it please Your Majesty,

AMongst the many inestimable Happinesses we enjoy under Your Majest)'s auspicious Reign, we Your most dutiful and loyal Subjects beg Leave to congratulate Your Majesty upon the glorious Accomplishment of the Union between Your Kingdoms of England and Scotland: A Work too great for Your Royal Predecessors to attain, though aim'd at with the most ardent Inclinations and Endeavours imaginable.

The Success in this boundless Difficulty, Madam, seem as if Providence particularly design'd it for an Addition to the mighty Blessings Your Subjects have received since Your ascending the Throne: And as the desired Effects Great Britain will have by it cannot yet fully appear, we heartily wish and pray, That Your Majesty's Life and Reign may be long and prosperous; and that Your Majesty may see the glorious Advantages Your united Kingdom will possess by so great and generous an Undertaking.

In Testimony whereof we have caused the common Seal of the said Corporation to be hereunto affixed the 6th Day of July, in the 6th Year of Your Majesty's most auspicious Reign.

All which Addresses Her Majesty received very graciously.

Leghorne, June 27. N. S. Dr. Newton, Envoy Extraordinary from Her Majesty of Great Britain, arrived here from Genoa the 24th Instant in a Galley of the Republick. During his Residence there he receiv'd all possible Marks of Esteem, and an immediate Compliance with whatever he propos'd in Behalf of the Queen of Great Britain. The Republick omitted no Occasion of recommending themselves to Her Majesty's Friendship; and the Senate order'd all manner of Provisions necessary for the Fleet commanded by Sir Cloudesly Shovel to be sent on board without Duty. A Felucca came in here yesterday from Naples, with an Account, That the Viceroy, finding it was in vain any longer to oppose himself against the universal Inclination of the People, had retir'd with his Treasure and more valuable Furniture to Gaeta; and that all things tended to a Revolution in that Kingdom. This Advice is confirm'd from Naples by another Felucca arriv'd this Morning. The Count de Thaun hath enter'd Rome with 200 Horse; where the Pope seems also to fear a Revolution of the Government by an Insurrection of the People. It is reported, that Cardinal Grimani is excommunicated.

Geneva,